

We are losing all respect for mainstream broadcast media. We are the joke of the world. Your giant conglomerates are destroying democracy. I'm getting tired of working hard, getting nothing in return. I am a corporate slave. Listen to the people for once and not your handlers. Why is Powell's son in charge of the FCC anyway. Sounds fishy to us out here.